Course Description

A comprehensive course specially designed for Secondary 3 students who wish to explore English in various forms and perspectives. The course covers critical thinking, understanding and appreciation of a wide range of literary and informational/functional texts from print and non-print sources.

Students will be exposed to an array of well-selected reading and audio-visual materials through which they will learn how to interpret meanings through guided language/literary analysis and experiential learning. In this course, students are required to learn descriptive writing, exposition, argumentative essays, critical analysis and understanding language techniques, all of which are tested in the 'O' Level English examinations.
